

I support the multi-level licensing. An Amateur Extra licensee should show that they do know more than a General and I support requiring a knowledge of Morse Code before getting an Extra-class license.